We, the graduating class of 1960, dedicate our annual to Carl Grove Miller, founder of the Tiger tradition. Renowned as an outstanding journalist, Mr. Miller is the author of textbooks used in journalism classrooms across the nation. His knowledge and experience were inherited by a parade of Lewis and Clark students from 1922 to 1959. During these thirty-seven years as publications adviser, Mr. Miller established high standards for the newspaper and yearbook — standards which have made them our most cherished high school traditions. Therefore, it is appropriate that we dedicate the 1960 Tiger to the man who has given so much of his life to its development.

CARL GROVE MILLER

1960...

But while the fifties are so near, memories linger on.

LC, with its sign-cluttered halls which announce that

Ann is running for veep or the . . .

Inaugural Ball is Saturday

Basketball championships won in sudden death,

Teachers and those facts they wanted us to learn.

Students . . . 2,500 of them.

1960...

Its name rings of dreams of the future . . .

College

The Service

Jobs

Marriage

All in the decade which opens space's challenge.

Whether it's orbiting Mars or . . .

Orbiting into a new life based on our high school memories,

We now put

THIS TIGER INTO ORBIT

HAPPY KLOPP

Bad luck and inexperience plagued the Lewis and Clark football squad last fall as the gridders fell into the lowly ranks of the City League.

Although finishing with an unimpressive record of one win in seven games, the Tigers showed that they were by no means a pushover. Spirit and determination were at a peak and the team fought bravely throughout the season, losing all their games by narrow margins.
